

Sacramento Japanese United Methodist Church Presents

4th ANNUAL JAPANESE MOVIES AT THE CREST

Friday Evening, May 16 and Saturday Afternoon & Evening, May 17, 2008
1013 K Street, Sacramento, CA 95814

Photo Courtesy of NTV

OPENING NIGHT!

Friday Evening Feature - 7:30 PM

ALWAYS – Sunset on Third Street (2005)

The daily lives and struggles of two families during the 1950's in post WWII Tokyo – a time, which brought Coca Cola, TV, and refrigerators to Japan. Winner of 12 Japanese Oscars in 2006. (Japanese with English subtitles)

Saturday Afternoon 1st Show - 2:00 PM

HOT SUMMER WINDS (1991)

The story of the marriage of a Japanese immigrant farmer and his wife in California's Central Valley in 1934. Former Sacramentan Sab Shimono and Natsuko Ohama star in Emiko Omori's timeless film based on two stories by Hisaye Yamamoto. (English)

Saturday Afternoon 2nd Show - 3:45 PM

THE SLANTED SCREEN (2006)

A documentary on Asian actors in American movies. Priceless film clips and interviews cover 92 years of talent & racial stereotypes in Hollywood from Sessue Hayakawa and Bruce Lee to the present. (English)

Saturday Night Closing Feature -
7:30 PM

RASHOMON (1950)

The movie that introduced the world to Japanese film. Akira Kurosawa's groundbreaking work depicts four differing versions of rape and murder, questioning the nature of truth and reality. (Japanese with English subtitles.)

Photo Courtesy of Criterion

All Event Pass: $30

($25 if purchased before May 9, 2008, Advance sales begin March 21, 2008)

Single Ticket Price: $10

Tickets sales info: <http://www.sacjumc.com/> or

SJUMC office (916) 421-1017, 6929 Franklin Blvd. Sacramento, CA 95823.

Tickets also available through www.thecrest.com and at
The Crest Box Office, 1013 K Street, Sacramento, CA 95814