

5TH ANNUAL
JAPANESE MOVIES AT THE CREST
FILM FESTIVAL

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 15 & SATURDAY AFTERNOON & EVENING, MAY 16, 2009

THE CREST THEATRE • 1013 K STREET, DOWNTOWN
SACRAMENTO, CA

Photo Courtesy of Funimation

OPENING NIGHT!

Friday Evening Feature – May 15, 8:00 PM

LOVE AND HONOR (2006)

A story of sensitivity & depth about a young, blind samurai who is tested by a rigid, hypocritical feudal society. The last film of Yoji Yamada's samurai trilogy. Winner of three 2007 Japanese Academy Awards. (Japanese with English subtitles)

Saturday, May 16, 12:30 PM
1st Show

GO FOR BROKE!
(1951)

Director Robert Pirosh's depiction of the Japanese-American 442nd Regimental Combat team who suffered the highest casualties and won the most Purple Hearts of any WWII unit. Starring the Nisei veterans & Van Johnson.

Saturday May 16, 3:00 PM
2nd Show

MOST HONORABLE SON
(2007)

Bill Kubota's documentary on a "Nebraskan farm boy" and WWII hero, Ben Kuroki. Film clips and interviews with Kuroki, a B-24 & B-29 gunner, and his surviving squadron team mates.

Photo Courtesy of PBS.org

Saturday, May 16, 5:00 PM
3rd Show

THE GIRL WHO LEAPT
THROUGH TIME (2006)

A teen tomboy, Makoto, finds that she has the gift of traveling back in time. Winner of the 2007 Japanese Academy Award for Best Anime. (Japanese with English subtitles)

Photo Courtesy of Bandai

Saturday, May 16, 8:15 PM
4th Show

A STRANGER OF MINE
(2005)

A drama which has comic moments with unexpected twists and turns. Winner of three awards at Cannes Film Festival. (Japanese with English subtitles)

Photo Courtesy of Pia Corporation

SACRAMENTO JAPANESE
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
6929 FRANKLIN BLVD
SACRAMENTO, CA 95823
916-421-1017

BEGINNING MARCH 30, TICKETS AVAILABLE AT:

WWW.TICKETS.COM
1-800-225-2277

THE CREST THEATRE
916-442-5189